Winterizing Checklist

Worked by temperature, not by month

WORKED BY TEMPERATURE, NOT BY MONTH

Winter does not arrive on a date. It arrives in steps, and each step has a job attached. Do the forty degree work in October and the twenty degree work becomes a ten minute walk around the house instead of a plumbing bill.

Fill these in first

First frost: _____

First hard freeze (28 or lower): _____

If you do not know your dates, your county extension office publishes them, and any neighbor with a garden knows them to the week.

PLEASE READ THIS PAGE

This is a printable planning document, not professional advice. It is sold as a reference and a record keeping tool. It is not legal, financial, tax, medical, veterinary, engineering, agronomic or safety certification, and it does not replace a licensed professional, your local code official, your county extension office, or the manufacturer of any product you use.

You are responsible for your own decisions. Conditions differ by place, climate, equipment and person. Read the whole document before relying on any figure, date or interval in it, confirm anything that matters against the current official source, and use your own judgment before acting.

Some subjects here can cause injury, illness or property damage if done wrong. That includes food preservation and curing, work around animals and livestock, electrical work, generators, fuel, tools, ladders, roofs, water systems, and any task described in the safety material. Follow the current official source (the USDA or National Center for Home Food Preservation, your county extension, your veterinarian, the manufacturer, your local building code) wherever it differs from this document. The official source always wins.

No liability for injury, illness, loss or damage. Delta Ridge Technologies is not responsible for any injury, illness, loss, spoiled food, equipment damage, animal loss, property damage or financial loss that results from following, misreading or misapplying anything in this document. If a figure here disagrees with the authority, the authority is right and this document is wrong.

WARRANTY AND LIMIT OF LIABILITY

This document is provided as is, without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including fitness for a particular purpose. If a file is defective or will not open, write to us and we will send a replacement or refund the purchase price in full. That refund is the limit of our obligation and our liability, and we are not liable for indirect or incidental or consequential damages. These terms are governed by the law of the State of Arkansas.
